THE NEW YOU

Also known as Denoted Poetry or Danyelle - Unstoppable, this young artist started out with musical influences from her family. Always passionate about music she began writing at the age of 12. At age 16 she released her first Jazz single titled You Mean The World and received a novice welcome as her first official musical creation. For Danyelle' this was only the beginning. At the age of 21 she was signed to a major recording label and got her first real taste of working in the music industry. However, a secular path is not where she felt the Lord calling her to so after leaving the secular industry she decided to go Independent.

Throughout the years she has worked with various artist and produced songs for singers and rappers across the country. In answering the call on her life she was ordained as a minister in 2007. Her musical style spans the range of Jazz, R&P, Christian Hip Hop, Spoken Word and Pop. As a Ghost Writer she writes in all genres both lyrics and music production. She has released 3 full length CD's the first one titled Wheel Of Life, followed by The Jumpoff Compilation and lastly UNSTOPPABLE. Each CD displays this artist range of vocal styles mixed with powerful lyrics

Danyelle has also been a featured artist on radio programs such as The Admiral and Nikki love show on 1350 WLOU, The Pete O'Shea show WTIS, The Righteous Temple of Hip Hop 88.5 and was a featured artist on Afrotainment T.V's hit show Point Of View. Danyelle' has also ministered at historical events such as the Zora Neale Hurston Festival in Tampa FL. and the annual Winter Jam concert in Houston Texas. In 2017 Danyelle Was nominated for the Best Female Hip Hop Artist in the Tampa Bay Gospel Awards.
